

HELI-SKI ICELAND 2015

INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL LOGISTICS

HOW TO GET TO ICELAND:

Direct flights available from these major cities:

- Anchorage
- Boston
- Denver
- Minneapolis/St Paul
- New York – JFK
- New York – EWR
- Orlando
- Portland, OR
- Seattle
- DC

For booking information please visit www.icelandair.com

Note: Most flights departing from the US leave in the evening and arrive early morning in Keflavik, which means it's possible to continue on and arrive in Akureyri on the same day. If hanging out and spending a day or two in Reykjavik is on your agenda, there are a ton of things to do and see. We recommend visiting the world famous “Blue Lagoon Geothermal Spa” or hopping on the “Inside the Volcano” tour. For more information on where to stay and what to do please reach out to tking@irwinguides.com

HOW TO GET TO THE TROLL PENINSULA:

Upon arrival into KEF you will need ground transportation to the Reykjavik domestic airport.

- We recommend using Securitas ground transportation

For booking information visit www.securitas.is or email securitas@securitas.is

Flights from Reykjavik to Akureyri leave every hour from 7 am to 7 pm and can be booked directly at the airport. However, we advise pre-booking your flight with Air Iceland. For booking info please visit www.airiceland.is

HELI-SKI ICELAND 2015

INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL LOGISTICS

ARRIVAL INFO:

- Upon arrival into Akureyri you will be met by the Irwin Guides team and driven to Siglufjordur, the epicenter of your stay with us.
- Note: Skiing on your day of arrival is a possibility - however it is subject to weather conditions and availability. Please inquire for more information.

DEPARTURE INFO:

- Check out is at 10 am. Keep your ski gear handy - with good weather and remaining HOBBS time (or additionally purchased time) - we will get you skiing!
- We recommend catching an evening flight back to Reykjavik (please inquire for hotel recommendations back in Reykjavik)

